Milo, we'll extend the date for compliance to the subpoena to December 31, and are willing to reschedule our meeting regarding the scope of your production to next Wednesday, December 18. We are running up against deadlines in the litigation so cannot afford to delay this issue much further, but we are willing to accommodate another week if you can confirm that you can meet with us next Wednesday. Let me know if 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 18 in our office works for you. Thanks.

Mr. Yiannopolous, it was my understanding that you intend to comply with our subpoena, which is why we discussed a meeting to further discuss the scope of your production. I have not heard from you since Friday confirming our meeting. If it remains your intention to comply voluntarily, please let me know as soon as possible whether we can expect you tomorrow at 4pm in our office at the address below. Thanks.

Mr. Yiannopoulos,

I represent the Plaintiffs in the matter of Elizabeth Sines, et al. v. Jason Kessler, et al., Civil Action No. 3:17-cv-00072-NKM. On November 5, 2019, you were served the attached subpoena to produce documents concerning this litigation by December 5, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. This email is to inform you that your time to comply has elapsed. We have not heard from you or received any materials in response to our subpoena. If it is your intention to resist compliance, we intend to seek to enforce the subpoena. If, however, you would like to discuss prompt compliance, I am available to discuss the matter at the numbers below. Please let me know by the close of business on Monday, December 9, whether you intend to produce materials in response to the subpoena and how you would like to proceed. Thanks.
